(Agenda No. 5)

The Chair introduced the item to the meeting, invited public speakers to make their addresses and responded to their points in turn.

Following a question from the Chair, officers explained that the plans accompanying the initial bid to the Department for Transport had been altered slightly due to the benefits not working as expected on the corner of Cherwell Street and George Street.

The Chair confirmed with officers that this was termed as a 'virtual bus lane'.

Officers noted that the regeneration of Canal Street, to the east of Cherwell Street, would provide further opportunities in this area. The Chair agreed and stated that this scheme had to be seen in the wider traffic management plan for Banbury, rather than in isolation.

The Chair noted that further formal consultation would be undertaken once the design is finalised.

Officers noted different options that had been put forward, but that the 'virtual bus lane' approach was the one taken forward and they confirmed that money was not being taken out of the scheme.

The Chair noted support outlined in the report from consultees for the core objectives of the scheme, which was welcomed.

The Chair encouraged residents to keep in touch with the County Council with any concerns they may have.

The Chair thanked officers and speakers and agreed to the recommendations in the report.

Officers confirmed that for loading and unloading, it was possible to do this on double-yellow lines, resident bays or short-stay bays.

It was noted that different times of the day have differing levels of demand for cycle parking spaces.

The Chair noted alternative parking options available to those near South Parade.

The Chair noted that the decisions on width and distance between the bike racks were a balance, based on sufficient space and more bicycles being able to park. Officers confirmed that spacing could be revisited if required.
